means to help us. We always thought we could not support a minister one half time, but we decided to try, and called a meeting and when it came to the financial part, why that was just as easy as any of it, "when we have the will to do" and will let the spirit of God direct our actions.

We are anxiously waiting when our pastor can be with us every two weeks. He has done a noble work since he has been with us, but could have done better had it been so he could have visited us oftener. We have a good Sunday School, good interest and a good Young People's Society.

The EVANGELIST is a welcome visitor to our home and we could not get along without it. May God's choicest blessings rest upon the editor and his co-workers. May God bless his cause every where, is my prayer. ALBERT W. EVANS.

Pleasant Hill, Ohio

Dear readers of the EVANGELIST, we find now that we made our report of our revival meeting, held at Maple Grove, Ind., too soon. As we went back Sunday the 26, to fill our regular appointment there. Going to the river at 2:30 p. m. where one brother was baptized who had joined at the close of the meeting, and then on Sunday morning when the invitation was given, a young man came forward for whom the church has been laboring for years. In all my experience in church work, I never saw an audience so affected as when this young man came out. He comes bringing a wide influence with him and the church is rejoicing as never before over their victory. So this makes eleven accessions, with others very near the kingdom. With many anxious hearts for many others who are near to them which we hope and pray that they will soon unite with us. The church needs them, and they need the church. So brethren pray for our continued success at Maple Grove. M. S. WHITE.

Udell, Iowa

Our meetings here are all right. Up to yesterday morning's close of service there were two by letter and eight by confession. Last night's service was one of great power and blessing. I have seen a few such meetings but not many. There was a general feeling of deep interest and conviction. Eighteen came forward and confessed Christ, and it looks as tho the real work of the meeting was just beginning. Will write more later in the week. S. H. BASHOR.

Dayton, Ohio

Our protracted meeting is over. We are very glad to report that God was with us and blessed us.

We continued three weeks and one night and had twenty nine confessions and additions. Nine were baptized, one came to us from the German Baptist, six by letter and thirteen are yet to be baptized. A few of these may not come into the Brethren church and yet they may. We will report the matter correctly when the time comes.

In the last ten months, if these all come into the church, and nearly all will, there were added thirty nine to the mission.

I think the brotherhood will rejoice with us in regard to this work. Our people worked hard thru this meeting and had not sickness come to the majority of our homes we might have been able to give a more favorable report.

We have nothing to boast of but a great deal to be grateful for, and we are perfectly willing to give the honor to whom it belongs. If God will be with us, in the future and we know he will, if we do right, as he has in the past, in a few years we will have a good church in Dayton.

The Sunday school is growing rapidly and if you think that nothing good can come out of Nazareth, in the language of one of old, we say 'Come and see.'

The people here have paid their part of the salary nobly and many other expenses during the year and they have treated their preacher too as a preacher should be treated and are entitled to much credit.

Winchester—These people have treated the writer to a very liberal donation and I hereby acknowledge sincere thanks. I wish also to acknowledge the reception of a box of fine nuts from the John Guthrie family, Ankenytown, Ohio. The nuts are just fine and the whole family joins me in saying, many thanks. This matter should have been reported before this.

I intend to assist Brother White at Pleasant Hill in a revival in the near future.

J. L. KIMMEL.

Falls City Items

When the last report from this place was made a union revival comprising the Methodist, Christian, Presbyterian, Baptist and Brethren churches, was in progress. We intended to report each week the results of the meeting but unfortunately I was injured in a runaway on January 12, and could not attend the meetings or prosecute our interests therein for almost a week. Our interests did not suffer however, for a noble band of workers worked the harder during our absence.

Mr. McConnel proved himself an evangelist of great power. Loving of heart, apt in illustration, profound in expounding the Word he captured all classes of people, wooing the unconverted to Christ and the believer to closer fellowship and greater consecration. The immediate results were two hundred and seventy three confessions. The cause of Christ greatly strengthened, or as a brother minister puts it "The town had the church cowed but now it will be the other way." The number of cards signed for membership in the Brethren church are twenty. Four of these are from persons who renew their covenant and begin again their service to God. Sixteen are to be baptized. Others are near the kingdom and several have said they were going to unite with us but did not sign cards. We will begin services in the Brethren church tonight and continue over Sunday. During these meetings those coming to the church will be baptized.

The work at Silver creek grows in numbers and influence ever since the meetings in November. A Sunday school was organized the first Sunday of this year. Notwithstanding the severe cold weather the last three weeks the attendance has been good. Several of our recent accessions will add force to this part of the congregation.

Carleton, Nebraska

Since my last letter our church has been painted on the outside and presents a very nice appearance but the internal spiritual condition is good. The various departments of church work and channels of usefulness are being worked and developed. We had good entertainments during the holidays. On New Years Eve about one hundred members gave the parsonage a visit, and left two handsome rocking chairs. The Sunday School presented the pastor with an overcoat, and his class with a paid up subscription to the Omaha Bee for a year, besides other remembrances. I mention these to show that Carleton is not a back number by any means, and that the church appreciates the pastor's work. During the coming year our work will tell better than ever. Brother Bashor is expected soon to give us a lift, and I have no doubt of the results. Brother Whipkey has the mission money to send in and before this it has gone on its mission.

I have one Sunday off in the month but do not take it, only now and then for a little rest, having a class of young men in the Sunday School. I think we have the best school in the west, of course this will be gainsaid. Some schools speak of their collections. Our school of a hundred gives each Sunday between three and four dollars. We have no prizes, no rivalry, no grab bag entertainments, nor questionable amusements for the purpose of raising money. We know it is needed, put our hands in our pockets and give it.

Brother John R. Lichty secured a good club for the EVANGELIST. The writer believes as he always did in printers ink to make the cause go. We expect to send a car load of people to conference next summer, and have a say as well as the east, with best wishes to all for the year now underway, I am just the same, only a little more so.

JOHN DUKE MCFADEN.

Gleanings from the Wayside

We are pleased at the good news that comes to us thru the columns of the EVANGELIST, that much good is being done in his name. Our conflict at Bethel is in the past. It was a hard fight from start to finish; oil wells and telephone lines seemed to predominate. "From the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh," and there was an abundance of speech along that line, they both having struck that section.

We held the fort two weeks and the Lord blessed the work with nine additions and we think more to follow. At present we are home for repairs a few days. Mrs. Summers is visiting her people in the city of Indianapolis and reports a pleasant time. May the good work of the Master go on. In his name. WM. W. SUMMERS.
